

ANTHONY K. BAKER INTERNSHIP APPLICATION

The Anthony K. Baker Internship program is named in honor of the late Anthony K. Baker, a dedicated advocate of historic preservation, history, and architecture throughout the United States. The Foundation is looking for graduate and undergraduate students studying architectural design, landscape architecture, and/or historic preservation to participate in a six-week program this summer. The program runs from the first week of June until the second week of July.

Interning students will be exposed to challenging, professional opportunities while working in the offices of leading architectural, interior, and landscape design firms, assisting with the documentation of historic properties and participating in urban planning and design, as well as a variety of other related projects.

Program Requirements and Expectations:

Availability for the full duration of the internship

Graduate / Undergraduate status

Major in Architecture, Historic Preservation, History, Interior Design, Urban Planning, or similar

Grade point average greater than 3.0

$2,400 Stipend provided

Application packages will not be returned. We recommend you keep copies of all package content and request additional letters of recommendation for your records.
